BUDAPEST'S SPORTS HALL has been completed, and Budapest Mayor Zoltán Szépvölgyi Wednesday commissioned the capital's latest major sports establishment. The Sports Hall accommodates 12,000 spectators, and has a car park for 800 cars. It is capable of staging 17 kinds of sports competitions. At the same time, it can accommodate cultural and entertainment occasions, social and political mass rallies. Construction work began early in 1978. Official opening and the staging of the first sports events, is planned for next February
